THE PEAK

Taze well
High School

Taze well, Virginia 1946

Dedication

MISS SALLIE MAHOOD

To one whose sympathetic understanding, gentle spirit, and quiet manner have endeared her to our hearts; whose devotion to duty stands as a tower of strength in the profession of teaching; whose character and influence have been far-reaching in the lives of those who have been privileged to know her; we, the students of Tazewell High School, dedicate "The Peak", with deepest respect and admiration to Miss Sallie Mahood.

BULLDOGS ROAR OVER
 GRAHAM, 63-40

The Class Will

We, the Senior Class of '46, being of sane mind and sound body, and having seen the future departure, do hereby declare "viva voce" the right to signify and direct the characteristic traits left behind to the prospects of the graduating class of '47.

As our duty to dear old Alma Mater, we leave with the desire to fulfill her ambition for us, as citizens of tomorrow.

To the many teachers whose guidance in the past has brought us up to this day, we leave appreciation.

Robert Asbury leaves his genius for facts and figures to Paul Peery.

Violet Asbury leaves her tantrums to Mildred Grainger.

Bob Bottimore leaves his position on the S. C. A. to Claude Stevenson.

Nell Bailey leaves her demure ways to Elizabeth Ward.

Tom Brown leaves his big grin to Clarence Bowman.

Betty Boggess leaves her love for murder mysteries to Mary Gillespie.

Cecil Chapman leaves his "ad libs" to Jack Peery.

Eula Bise leaves her meekness to Nancy Brown.

Louise Brown leaves her "Jitter-bug" title to Elizabeth Lankford.

Jesse Crouse leaves his short stature to Marvin Wimmer.

Carolyn Credle leaves her bashfulness to Joan Witten.

Glenn Eanes leaves his speaking ability to Norma McConnell.

Betty Crockett leaves her eagerness and frankness to Louise White.

Garland Hawkins leaves his position as Manager to Rhea Watkins.

Freda Daniel leaves her animation to May Henry Sadler.

Bill Hunt leaves his artistic ability to Mary June Wall.

Georgia Fletcher leaves her voice to Virginia Herald.

Tiff Kiser leaves his broad shoulders to Albert McCall.

Fanny Lou Foote leaves her giggles to Sara Jo Greever.

Donald Lambert leaves his shyness to Bill Carter.

Louise Gibson leaves her curly hair to Carrine Williams.

John Lawson leaves his steady gait to Leonard Rasnick.

Betty Heldreth leaves her school spirit to Virginia Mae VanDyke.

Joe Mason leaves his aeronautical mind to Bill Boggess.

Margaret Howery leaves her friendliness to Lorraine Gibson.

Sam May leaves his love of sports to Jack Ireson.

Nancy Kiser leaves her bewitching ways to Ann May.

Don McKinney leaves his height to Wayne Bandy.

Elizabeth Lockhart leaves her smile to Yvonne Lankford.

Ernest Osborne leaves his seat in chapel to some lucky junior.

Mignon Lewis leaves her "seaymore" blouses to Mary Stevenson.

Bob Peery leaves his courteous ways to Bill Adams.

Louise Leslie leaves her position on the publications to John Yost.

Harold Riley leaves his physique to Eddie Jackson.

Geraldine Leffel leaves her agility to Cassie Beavers.

Alex Valdo leaves his apple-polishing to Marvin Watkins.

Gladys Monk leaves her ability to study to Marion Gilliam.

Oscar Williams leaves his perfect attendance to Charlie Crouse.

Helen Mutter leaves her office work to Sue Carter.

Mildred Necessary leaves her genial personality to Jean Altizer.

Betsy Neel leaves her ability in home economics to Nancy Hagy.

Nancy Neel leaves her dimples to Peggy Peery.

Betty Porter leaves her athletic fame to Betty Jane Campbell.

Nonye Rhudy leaves her swiftness to Isabel Harrison.

Lois Reeves leaves her boy friends to Mary Tyler Shawver.

Catherine Stinnett leaves her dignity to Martha Ward.

Mary Ruth Smith leaves her interest in the opposite sex to Gerry Warner.

Lou Ellen Thompson leaves her interest in classical music to June Moore.

Mercedes West leaves her conservative way to Betty Herndon.

Watha Lambert leaves his determination to Bowen Sheets.

Virginia Wilson leaves her quiet manner to Betha Lee Hoops.

Naomi Yost leaves her friendly and comforting atmosphere to Peggy Bundy.

May Young Linkous leaves school to become a housewife.

Bud Myers leaves his steady ways to Bill Myers.

Bob Rasnick leaves his athletic ability to Johnny Gillespie.

Ruth Keene leaves her temper to Betty Leece.

Jimmy Mills leaves his typing speed to Warren McCall.

Dorothy Lambert leaves her love for history to Mary Ann Hagy.

Bob Dunnigan has left . . .

Senior Class History

As the curtains are once again drawn on a chapter in the history of Tazewell High School's Senior class of 1946, we wish to pause—to reminisce—and enjoy the past years of happy experiences.

The present class of seniors became a class in 1935, in the Tazewell Elementary School, under the supervision of Miss M. Coulling in the first grade. The class under Miss Coulling's direction included Nancy Kiser, Bob Bottimore, Betty Boggess, Cecil Chapman, Sam May, Bob Peery, Louise Gibson, Mignon Lewis, Lou Ellen Thompson, Barnzie Akers, Tiff Kiser, Betty Heldreth, and Garland Hawkins. As the years passed into history, Nell Bailey, and Ruth Smith joined the class in the second grade; Louise Leslie in the third; Gladys Monk in the sixth; and Catherine Stinnett in the seventh.

When the class reassembled in September of 1942, in addition to those listed above, Anna Lee Webb, Mercedes West, Jimmy Mills, Betty Porter, Alex Valdo, Bob Dunnigan, Lois Reeves, Betsy Neel, Garland Cox, Jess Crouse, Tom Brown, Don Lambert, Naomi Yost, Ola Hart, Nancy Neel, Elizabeth Lockhart, Ruth Keene, Joe Mason, Freda Daniel, Oscar Williams, Fanny Lou Foote, Dorothy Lambert, Glenn Eanes, and Harold Riley joined as freshmen; Don McKinney, Georgia Fletcher, Betty Crockett, Mildred Grainger, Robert Asbury, and John Lawson as sophomores in 1943; Bud Myers, Bill Hunt, May Young, Violet Asbury, Helen Mutter, Louise Brown, Alfred Monk, Virginia Wilson, Carolyn Credle, Ernest Osborne as juniors in 1944; Watha Lambert, Ernest Whittaker, Nonye Rhudy, and Robert Rasnick as seniors in 1945.

The most cherished memories during the freshmen year were Miss Morris's history class, Mrs. Gillespie's math class, and May Day. The sophomore year is well remembered as Coach Snidow's last year, Miss Higgenbotham's English class, Mrs. Leslie's Latin class, and the annual school carnival. The class longs for the happy events which took place during their junior year. They include the Junior-Senior Prom, Mr. Walthall's arrival as principal, the organization of the Latin club, and the publishing of the school's first annual. The senior year is never to be forgotten because it brought forth many happy days in preparation for graduation, the school carnival, and the winning of the county tournament by the girls.

The class has had a happy past and hopes to have an even better future.

Class Prophecy

Tazewell, Virginia
May 5, 1956

Dear Seniors of '46:

Remember those good ole' days in T. H. S. when each of us used to wonder what the other would be when he finished school? Well, here's an account of all of us.

I hear that Georgia Fletcher and Carolyn Credle are doing well in New York. Carolyn models the latest fashions at Saks and Georgia is starring in a hit stage comedy on Broadway. Some going, I'd say!

I dropped in yesterday to visit Miss Greever, who is ill with pneumonia, and she told me that Robert Asbury had formed a partnership with Tom Brown in New London, Connecticut. Employed as executive secretaries in the Brown-Asbury Glass Manufacturing Company are Betty Crockett and Margaret Howery.

Did you know that Robert Rasnick is coaching football at his alma mater, West Virginia University? And Tiffany Kiser coaches the All-American Girls Basketball Team of Kansas. His wife, the former Anne Lynch, is a member of that team.

Elizabeth and Glenn Eanes wrote from Hawaii that they are the proud parents of a son, Glenn Edward, Jr. They also said that they saw Catherine Stinnett Warner and Nancy Kiser Kilpatrick and their respective husbands vacationing on the isle. Nancy draws cartoons for the New York Times and Catherine writes short stories.

Betty Heldreth is assistant to the pastor of a large church in Cincinnati. Don McKinney, to whom Betty is married, works in an A & P Store in the same city. You should hear their daughter play the piano!

Another senior whose life was directed in the right way is Nell Bailey. She teaches Bible at Emory and Henry College.

I know you've heard about the big coal corporation which Jim Mills and John Lawson have organized. Mildred Grainger Peery and Gladys Monk work as stenographers for them.

If you read the papers often, you no doubt have seen Lou Ellen Thompson's name in it. She's pianist in the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Donald Lambert drives a truck for the Inter-American Trucking Lines. Ernest Osborne is employed as a pilot on a plane of the World Wide Air Transport Commission. On the same plane Lois Reeves works as a beautician.

I guess you knew that Betty Boggess' name was in Who's Who In America for being the most traveled person in the U. S. She's been in every country in the world!

Helen Mutter is private secretary to the Secretary of State in Washington, D. C. Nonye Rhudy Foote lives with her husband in England. Mary Ruth Smith teaches penmanship in a business school in Iowa. Betty Porter and Louise Brown have bought a ranch in Texas. You've seen them play in the movies, haven't you?

Jesse Crouse now serves his country as Petty Officer in the Navy. Ola Hart and Ruth Keene really enjoy making up Hollywood stars behind the scenes. Garland Cox and Bill Hunt now own nearly one-third of the farm land in Tazewell County.

Watha Lambert is still going to a university, even though he is married and is the father of four daughters. Nancy Neel, who is married to a railroad company president from Washington, has at last found the school of her dreams, the College of Journalism of Missouri University.

Here in Tazewell the last ten years have seen many improvements. A new hospital, of which Bob Peery is the head, has been erected. Cecil Chapman is a psychiatrist in the hospital. The former Gerry Leffel, wife of Dr. Chapman, is head of the children's department. Eula Bise, Louise Gibson, Mignon Lewis, Midred Necessary, and Virginia Wilson compose a very competent staff of nurses.

Garland Hawkins now runs the modern hotel which has been built for three years. Bob Bottimore is the most prominent lawyer in Tazewell now. You knew he married a New York socialite, didn't you?

Harold Riley, Oscar Williams, Joe Mason, and Alex Valdo have established an airplane factory. Anna Lee Webb and Mercedes West are learning to fly during the time when they're not busy as secretaries to the company.

Violet Asbury coaches basket ball in the new gym up at the high school. Fanny Lou Foote teaches government. Remember how she hated it in high school? Betsy Neel is home economics instructor. She'll never teach anyone to sew as well as she does.

Louise Leslie is editor of the Clinch Valley News. Sam May is sports editor. (while he isn't announcing college football games over radio television), and Freda Daniel is society editor. Louise flies every weekend to Carnegie Hall where she plays in piano concerts.

Dorothy Lambert, Virginia Wilson and Naomi Yost come into town in their helicopters often. They are married to prosperous farmers.

Alfred Monk now owns the Monk Lumber Company of Virginia and North Carolina. Bud Myers is his assistant.

May Young Linkous, the girl who married when she was a senior, is now the head clerk of the Linkous Department Store at Gratton.

Ernest Whittaker has taken over his father's business. Hot-dogs are still specialties!

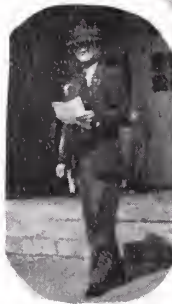

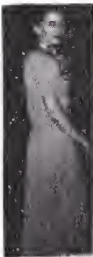

Yours while I have my fingers crossed,

NANCY J. NEEL,
Prophet, Class of 1946.
